

MSS. Collection #8

James Turner Morehead Family Papers, 1830-1954. 10 folders, ca. 130 items.

INTRODUCTION

This collection includes currency and scrip, certificates and diplomas, several military items, calling cards and invitations, newspaper clippings, photographs, silhouettes, paintings, drawings, a bible, and other miscellaneous material. The documentary materials deal chiefly with James T. Morehead, Jr. and his brother Joseph Motley Morehead. Photographic materials are portraits in various forms of family members. Also included are paintings, silhouettes and drawings.

Arrangement: The James Turner Morehead Family Papers are arranged in sixteen series by the person or organization to which they pertain, for documentary materials, or the type of image, for graphic materials.

Provenance: This collection was donated in large part by or from the estate of Mrs. Annie Morehead Whitfield and James T. Morehead III, descendants of James T. Morehead I. It includes the following accession numbers: 1935.345.17, 35-36, 39-46, 66-67; 1935.435.1-13, 40; 1941.227-230, 232-237, 239-241; 1947.766-768, 771-773; 1964.16.1-12, 32-33; 1973.38.1; 1976.237.1; L1980.135.1-2.

Processing: This collection was processed by Karen C. Carroll, and the finding aid was completed in August 1983.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

This collection concerns several generations of the Morehead family. James Turner Morehead I (1799-1875) was the son of Obedience Motley Morehead (1768-1863) and John Morehead. He married Mary Teas Lindsay, daughter of Robert and Letitia Harper Lindsay, in 1830. James' brother John Motley Morehead, I, married Mary's sister, Anna Elizabeth. Morehead was a Greensboro lawyer, having graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1819. His office was located at his home at 205 West Sycamore Street. In 1851-1853 he was a United States Congressman, a town commissioner in 1832, 1834, and 1835, and a North Carolina State Senator from 1835 until 1842. The Moreheads had six children: Annie Elizabeth (1836-1914) married Rev. Theodore Whitfield in 1859; Robert Lindsay Morehead; John Henry Morehead; James Turner Morehead Jr.; Joseph Motley Morehead; and Mary Harper Morehead.

Colonel James Turner Morehead Jr. (1838-1919) was born on May 28, 1838, at his parents' home on Sycamore Street in Greensboro. He graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1858 and was licensed to practice law one year later before the County Courts. In 1860 he received his license to practice before any bench in North Carolina. In 1861 he enlisted as a Second Lieutenant with the Guilford Grays (Company B, 27th Regiment, North Carolina Troops). In April 1862 he was promoted to Captain in the 45th Regiment, and one month later was Lieutenant Colonel of the 53rd. He later served as Colonel of this unit. Morehead was captured near Petersburg in March 1865, and was a prisoner the remainder of the war. After the Civil War he returned to Greensboro and the 205 W. Sycamore address (he later had the house torn down). He was a lawyer in Greensboro, with his office at 104 1/2 N. Elm Street. Morehead also served as a North Carolina Senator from 1872 until 1875 and in 1883. He died April 11, 1919.

Joseph Motley Morehead (1840-1911) was the son of James Turner and Mary T. Morehead and brother of James Turner Morehead Jr. He attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill but poor health prevented his graduation. In 1861 he enlisted in the Guilford Grays and later accepted a Lieutenancy with Company E, Second North Carolina Troops. His health failed and he received a medical discharge. He resumed his study of law and was licensed in 1865. In 1883 he married Mary Christian Jones of Pennsylvania County, Virginia. Of their four children only James Turner survived to adulthood. Joseph Motley was an early Vice President and later President of the Guilford Battleground Company. His home was located at 215 S. Eugene Street.

Colonel John Henry Morehead was the son of James Turner Morehead I, and he graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1853. He served in the 45th Regulars, North Carolina Troops during the Civil War. He contracted malaria and died in 1863.

Major James Turner Morehead was born in 1840, son of Governor John Motley Morehead. He graduated from the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill in 1861 and enlisted in the Confederate Army. In 1862 he was the First Lieutenant, and later served as Adjutant of the 63rd North Carolina Troops (5th Cavalry). He was severely wounded at Bristoe Station and later assigned staff duty in Richmond, Va. He surrendered with Johnson in 1865. A year earlier he had married Mary Elizabeth Connally. He was the founder of Willson Aluminum Company (1891-1893), but lost his fortune in the panic of 1893.

John Motley Morehead II (1870-1965) was the only son of Major James Turner Morehead. He attended primary school in Rockingham County, North Carolina, The Moravian Boy's School, Bingham Military Academy, and graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1891. He was a chemist and engineer and later became associated with Union Carbide Corporation. In 1945 he created the John Motley Morehead Foundation (planetarium, scholarships, etc.) for the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and was a long time benefactor of the College. He had no children.

SCOPE & CONTENT NOTE

This collection includes printed and manuscript documents and various forms of photographs. There is very little correspondence and none of a family nature. Several items relate to the Civil War, including currency, bonds, commissions, passes and medical certificates. Two diplomas are from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (1853, 1858). Some items relating to Mary T. Lindsay, wife of James T. Morehead I, are a sketch of her father's homestead (Robert Lindsay of Deep River) and Mount Hecla scrip (issued by her mother's first husband, Henry Humphreys). The calling cards are from various prominent Greensboro citizens.

This collection is not a broad group of personal papers. It is rather a collection of "special" items of the type which would be preserved in a scrapbook. Its major strength is the collection of photographs, paintings, drawings, and silhouettes.
