

BRIEF INVENTORYMSS. Collection #117*Title: McMinn, Norfleet & Wicker CollectionDates: ca. 1947–1990Quantity: 1 boxTypes of materials: architectural plans and drawings, printed materialAccession Numbers: 1994.68.1; 2009.37.2; 2013.49.1Brief Description: This collection consists of materials relating to the Greensboro architectural firm of McMinn, Norfleet & Wicker.

Materials include: drawings of the building complex for Friendly Center, plans for the Greensboro Coliseum and a news supplement concerning its dedication on October 25, 1959, master plans for Guilford Courthouse National Military Park, and renderings of the proposed UNCG School of Nursing, Ben L. Smith Senior High School, Forum VI Building, and former Gate City Savings and Loan building. Also included are a booklet of John Floy Wicker architectural works, data and specifications on the Coliseum, competition plans and drawings for the City-County Government Center, news articles concerning the Greensboro Coliseum and Triad Center Business Park, and miscellaneous news clippings about urban development in Greensboro.

Major Names/Subjects: Architecture – Designs and plans
Greensboro War Memorial Coliseum
Guilford Courthouse National Military Park (N.C.)
McMinn, Norfleet & Wicker, Architects
Urban developmentDate Surveyed: 11/1/2012Surveyed by: Sue Watson